

1.26.25

Seeds, Glory, Dust & Scars

1 Corinthians 15:35-49

4 Key Images for Our Resurrected Bodies

Seeds - What's _____ vs. what's _____

Glory - _____ us vs. _____ us

Perishable vs. _____

Dishonorable vs. _____

Weak vs. _____

Natural vs. _____

Dust - Born from _____ vs. born from _____

Scars - _____ vs. _____

Jesus' scars show:

His _____

His ability to know our _____

His work to _____

His victory over _____

Connection Card Next Steps - Memorize: Corinthians 15:49

I will thank God for the future hope that the Gospel gives me during a physical limitation/loss I'm facing.

I will send a note to a Christian thanking them for the hope they've demonstrated as they endure physical challenges or the loss of a loved one.

- Read the story of Jesus and Thomas in John 20:24-29. Jesus provided exactly the proof that Thomas demanded. What things have happened in your life that convince you that God is real and active? What evidence of God's work could you be overlooking?

- Read 1 Thess. 4:13-14, verses commonly read at funerals for Christians. Have you ever felt hopeful even when you've lost a loved one? What made it hopeful? How does this study of resurrection change how you view the loss of loved ones or your own future?

- 1 Cor. 15:42-44 lists four ways our resurrected bodies will differ from our current ones. What do you think we'll notice most when we are in resurrected bodies? What will you be most happy to give up from your current body?
 - Perishable vs. Imperishable
 - Dishonorable vs. Glorious
 - Weak vs. powerful
 - Natural vs. Spiritual

- Read Rev. 20:4-6. What does this glimpse into God's throne room tell you about the future condition of faithful believers? How does this preview change your thinking about how to live THIS life?